

LEAF National Call for Board and Committee Volunteers

LEAF (Women's Legal Education and Action Fund Inc.) invites community activists, lawyers, academics, and anyone else who cares about women's equality in Canada to share your talents with us. We have a number of Board and Committee vacancies to be filled in June, 2009.

Have you experience and knowledge in any of the following areas?

- Communications,
- Human rights and equality litigation,
- Fund development,
- Law reform,
- Non-profit governance,
- Program development, or
- Public legal education.

Are you enthusiastic and committed with a broad range of knowledge and expertise? If so, add your voice to ours - we need your ideas and your energy. LEAF offers a stimulating environment populated by others who share your passion for women's equality. Please consider taking a place on the Board of Directors or on a committee:

- Education Program Committee,
- Fund Development Committee,
- Governance Committee,
- Legal Program Committee,
- Nominating Committee, or
- Program Development Committee.

Interested applicants please complete and email the attached volunteer application form with a cover letter and resume stating your board and/or committee(s) preference and relevant qualifications to nominate@leaf.ca. Deadline for June 2009 vacancies is Friday, March 13, 2009.

LEAF encourages applications from Aboriginal women, racialized women, lesbians, women with disabilities and women from other marginalized groups. For 23 years, LEAF has held the law accountable to women in Canada. Visit www.leaf.ca to learn more about our work.
